

OVBCC

MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Ottawa Valley Border Collie Club (OVBCC) was formed in January 1985. The aim of the club is to promote the many talents and skills of the Border Collie, not only through its traditional herding abilities but also through other activities such as agility, flyball, disc and a variety of other dog sports. The OVBCC relies on the initiative of its members to participate, volunteer and to help organize the many activities that the club is involved in.

Types of membership:

Active - Those who own or have owned a Border Collie *. Each active member has full voting privileges and may run for the Executive.

Family - Active members with a second (or more) person in the household who is also working the Border Collie *. Family membership allows two votes with full voting privileges and may run for the Executive.

Border Collie* is defined as being registered or registrable
